CLASS OF

CLASS HISTORY

The year was 1995: Freshman year, pushing and shoving through the halls of a brand new school, the class of 1999 made its debut appearance at Agawam High School. Matt Albano and Chris Rousseau were elected as our class president and vice president, and we bravely set out for the new millennium. Mr. Dabrowski, who was being initiated as the new official principal of the school, was as eager as the rest of us for a great start. Sports that year stirred the entire student body to cheer as girls basketball and boys skiing took their respective titles. The wrestling team won its tenth consecutive Western Mass title to become the "Team of the Decade" and everyone was impressed with the girls track team, as they not only conquered the Valley League but Western Mass as well. Our first Orange and Brown Day was a success, but despite our best efforts we lost at the Winter Olympics.

Sophomore year, zero tolerance was introduced and Officer Galleroni began to roam our hallways. In preparation for the big Thanksgiving Day Game we competed valiantly with the upperclassmen to prove that we were "joyous and ever loyal" as we cheered the football team to a victory over West Springfield. Boys soccer triumphed over the Churchill-Moriam Division and girls tennis became the Pioneer Valley League Champions. Dan Balboni and Nicole Macey took up the lead in our class and we finally got our class rings. We all enjoyed watching "MASH" and "A Christmas Carol," but even through all the good times we yearned to be upperclassmen.

Junior Year, as we crept ever closer to the edge, we faced many new changes. Three minurs passing, no jewelry in gym class, and the last Seinfeld episode. Our school underwent major remodeling and construction to prepare for accreditation. The band showed off their talents in Atlanta, Georgia, and the Cheerleaders made a fine showing at Nationals in Myrtle Beach. Sports made an impressive effort as wrestling reclaimed its Western Mass title from West Springfield and gymnastics proceeded to lead Western Mass in talent. Unfortunately we lost the singing contest once again at Orange and Brown Day, although not from lack of effort. Sadly, the deaths of Princess Dianna, comedian Chris Farley, and Mother Theresa rocked the world and Beanie Baby collectors flocked to snatch up the memorial "Princess" bear. We all enjoyed the prom that year, reveling in our "One Moment in Time" as juniors. The Seniors spitefully continued the tradition of decorating the tennis courts on their last day of school and we wished we were graduating too.

Senior year, eagerly anticipating the dawn of a new millennium, we launched ourselves into our last year at Agawam High. It was accreditation crunch time as students and faculty alike strived for perfection in our building. Girls and boys volleyball and cross-country were added to our growing roster of sports teams, and we anxiously rooted for them. We excitedly jumped into our senior activities, and scrambled to prepare for our prom and semi formal. And of course we can't forget the Kid Party. As we look to the future, many members of the class of 1999 see some of the best years of their life coming to a close, others see an exciting new beginning, and still others may see a little bit of both. No matter what you see, however, one thing is for certain: we were lucky to be members of the class of 1999. We are the proud few who were able to experience life on the edge of time.

"The End Of The Beginning . . ."

Chapter one concludes
The doors are closing
We think about what we're leaving behind

A life, a legacy
That will live on
As we enter a new millenium

At times we think
We can't wait till the end
But what's the reality?

These last four years
Went by too fast
We don't want to leave

Some laughter, some tears
Excitement and fear
Friendships that will last eternally

The world is waiting for us
Right outside these doors
It bears endless possibilities

The future is ours to hold
Only time will determine
What life will bring

We've started the journey together
Don't hold back
It's the end of the beginning

And when we recollect the past
Later on
We'll realize we were lucky to be

Some of the few
Who've experienced
Life on the edge of time

All the best of luck to you
The class of 1999
Chapter two begins.

Mom and Dad, thank you so much for always having faith in me. I know that without your support and guidance, I would not be the person I am today. Wendy, you are not only my sister but my best friend in the world; without you I would be lost. You have always been there for me when others haven't. Your support has meant the world to me; thank you. Adam, the brother I never had, I wish you and Wendy the best of luck in the future!

To all of my family- I am so lucky to have been raised in such a wonderful place by such wonderful people! Though we may be a thousand miles apart, you are always in my thoughts. It is so hard to be away from you all, but it only makes me realize how precious each moment spent with you is. Home truly is where the heart is, and my heart will always be with you.

Editors Pages

To all my friends, you know who you are, thanks for everything! True friends are very hard to come by. A lot has happened the last 4 years and without you all it definitely would not have been the same. Franca thanks for always being there! Do you want to go for a drive? Glenn thanks for listening! Niki long talks, it all works out in the end. I wish the best of luck to every one of you in the future.

Mallory I can't believe that we have stayed close although we are a thousand miles apart. It has been sixteen great years of friendship and I know there are many more to come.

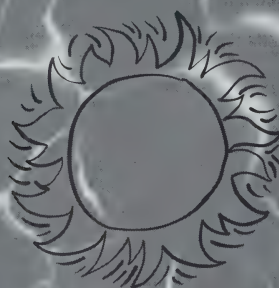

I would like to take this time to thank the entire Sa-chem staff. Niki and Sarah, you two have been amazing! Your ideas and input have been what has made this yearbook great! You have gone above and beyond (the law) for this yearbook thank you so much. To Mr. Pulaski, without your enthusiasm and dedication, this yearbook would not be near as great. Thank you for having faith in me. To the rest of the staff, your hard work has paid off. I would also like to thank Mike Basile and Patty Zerra for their artwork. Special thanks to Harold Core and JMC Graphics for helping us print the senior kits. To the class of 99, "Wheresoever you may go, go with all your heart."

y gets a little too friendly with a ferret.

Just laughing at this getup or you die!"

Amy had a run in with some cake frosting

Spooey are we?

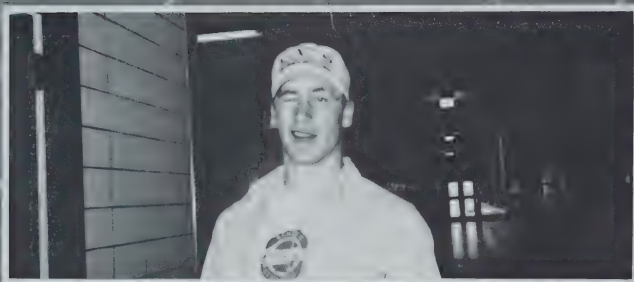

"What? I can't help that I'm cool."

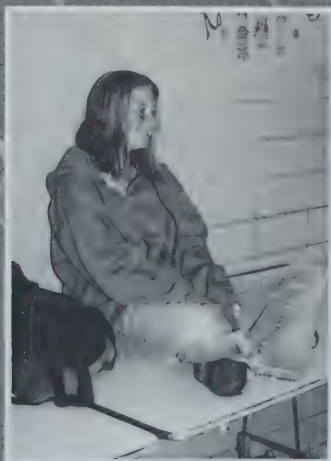

Jill and the boys attempt to pose innocently for the camera.

Here's looking at you kid.

Free to a good home.

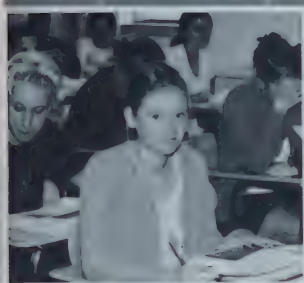

You just had to be there!

Justin has heard a knee-slipper.

Oh no! Erin has eaten her history homework!

I'm smiling because I have no idea what's going on.

Bill tries out a new modeling pose.

Karen is just too good for the camera!

Jen, Keegan, Lisa, Jill, Amanda, and Emily are laying down on the job

Not happy to be at school, Sara?

Does Nick normally dress like this or is it just for basketball?

Keegan chose the phone over her homework.

Which person in this picture does not look normal?

Someone is a bit cranky.

"Would you mind getting that camera out of my face? I'm trying to snarf down my lunch here."

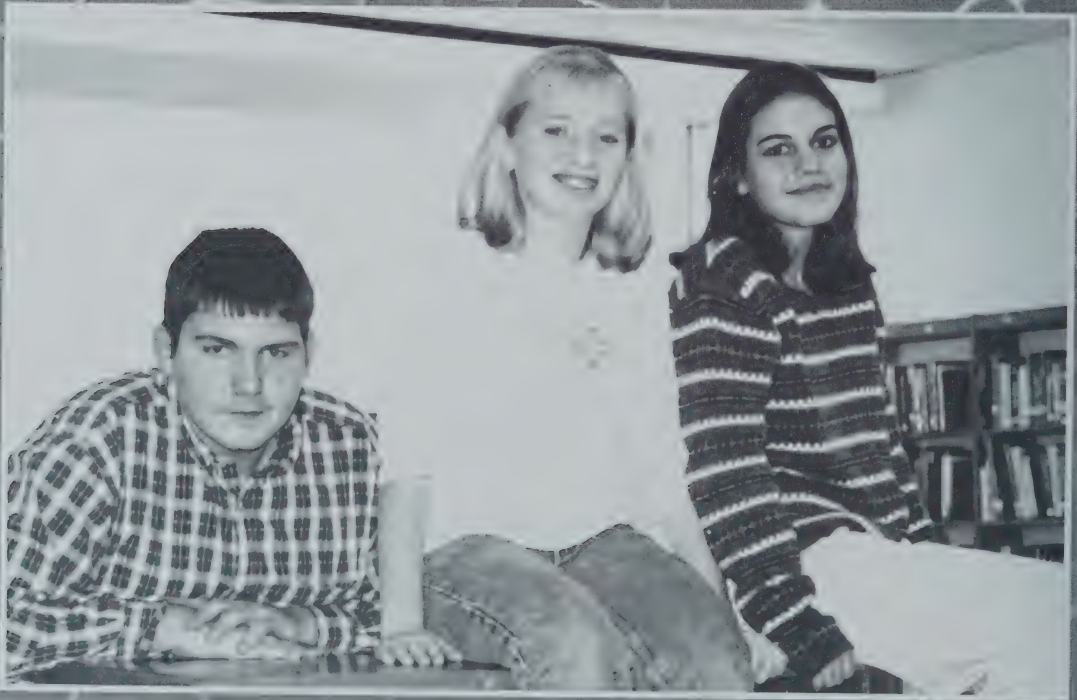

Annie doesn't seem to mind the fact that she has Silly-String all over herself.

"Got Silly-Stringed and proud of it."

Ron and his canine friend are caught off guard.

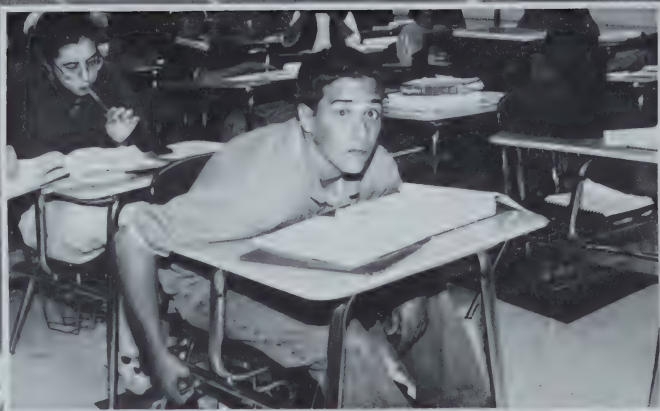

These girls rediously wait in line to have their school photo taken. Can you stand the excitement?

He forgot to take a shower before he came to school.

"What? What did I do?"

Are hallways really that crowded that piggy-back rides are our last resort?

What d'ya know? We've found an enthusiastic student.

"You mean to tell me that I have to spend 4 years at AH5?"

Please put your shoes back on, Emily. Even the photographer can't bare the stretch.

Lunchtime kids!! Today's meal is appetizing and quite scrumptious.

Aren't you both supposed to be paying attention in class?

ry and Lauren find something quite amusing and Jen isn't quite sure or exactly is going on.

This is a perfect example of what we all know as "cramming for a test."

If I were sitting in the corner, I wouldn't be laughing like that.

Justin (to Dave): "Dave . . . um, I think we look kind of goofy." Dave (to Justin): "Uhhhh . . . yeah . . . we definitely look weird."

It's Bubbles the Clown. No, wait . . . I think it's Mrs. Cohen.

Long day, Mr. McCaffrey?

We hear you, Mr. Z.

Never dance on a ladder with scissors in your hand.
It may be hazardous to your health.

Mr. Pulaski, photographer extraordinaire.

Administration

Principal Joseph Zabielski

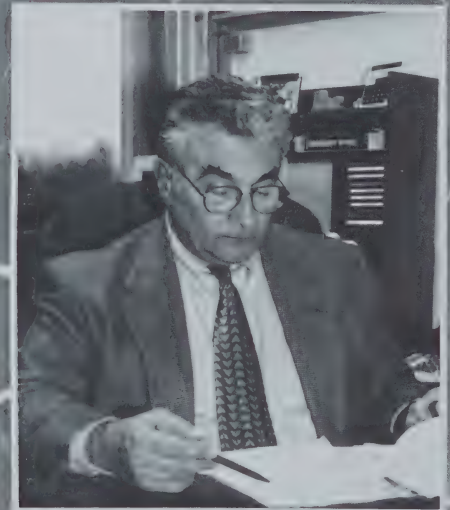

"Paul, did I just see a tarer-for flying through the air?"

Mr. Cavallo anxiously awaits another school day.

Dean of Students Demaherre Conte

Superintendent of Schools Dr. Frank A. Ameruso

Deputy Principal Paul Cavallo

What do zero tolerance, dismissal notes, and parking permits all have in common? They are all important tasks of our outstanding administration, of course. These dedicated people come to school every morning with a grin, ready to begin their humongous job of keeping peace and harmony among AHS pupils. Whether Mr. Zabielski is awarding our athletic teams with a "good-going" or is stalking you down the hallway when you're late to class, he is always working hard to ensure that every student in our school has the safe, happy, and successful education that is entitled to them. So the next time Mrs. Conte or Mr. Cavallo calls your house to hear your excuse for not being in class, don't blame them. They are just doing their job!

Guidance

STRESS! Don't fret, the guidance counselors are always there when you need help. Whether you need to fix a schedule or just talk about life in general, our five great guidance counselors help you solve problems A to Z. Throughout your treacherous four years at AHS, they are always there to hold your hand when you need it. So whenever you are in need of a shoulder to lean on, just knock on their door and you'll be greeted with a friendly smile.

Ann Marie Gould

Secretaries

They answer phones. They record attendance. They send passes. They write the daily and weekly bulletins. They're "Super Secretaries!" Have you recently taken a trip to the main office or to the guidance office? Chaotic is it? Wouldn't your life be a little chaotic if you had to deal with 1400 students every single day? These five wonderful ladies that we refer to as secretaries are the same five heaven-sent individuals who keep every school running smoothly. Without them, where would we all be? Probably roaming the halls aimlessly without a pass. They keep AHS in order, and that they deserve our complete respect. AHS can get pretty hectic at what they do day-in and day-out hard work.

It's October 23, 6:02 a.m. A sinister, frightening shadow looms up behind you and your friends. "Happy Mole Day!" Mr. Fahey cries as he bombards you with Toorsie Rolls. Who says science teachers are boring? Here at AHS we are extremely lucky to have such talented and exciting teachers, both young and experienced, to teach us the theories of Kepler, Copernicus, and Newton, as well as the equations yet to come!

"What's the derivative of  $f(x)$  as  $h \rightarrow 0$ ?" Panicking, you whip your head back and forth wondering if you are the only one who is confused. No, this is not your worst nightmare, it's math class. As the room temperature suddenly fluctuates from 45 degrees to 90, your head really starts to spin. Will no one help you understand? Never fear, the math teachers are here! Always ready to explain their passion, these dedicated teachers are working hard to prepare their students for the future.

English is the one of the most important classes in the school. Four years of it (along with gym!) are required for graduation. However, English is not only mandatory, it's also interesting. How else could you experience the lifestyle of Americans during Hester Prynne's time or get lost in the romance of Romeo and Juliet? Get away from stresses, problems, and little siblings by escaping into a book. And don't forget how to write a research paper. This is an invaluable part of your college preparation!

It's beneficial to learn from our mistakes, but wouldn't it be less risky if we could learn without making those errors? How is that possible? By studying history, we can experience the past and make it come alive in order to avoid repeating the mistakes of others. From prehistory to the present, there's an infinite amount to learn; but our teachers help us make sense of it. Realizing what goes on in peoples' minds in psychology and how societies function in sociology are also important. Our teachers prepare us for the future by helping us understand why and how things happen in our world.

Opening up a door to a whole new language is an exciting thing, and the teachers of the world language department make this journey all worth while. Whatever crazy techniques they are known to use, it sure makes learning a language fun for even the meekest of students. Each March, the world language teachers host "World Language Week," where students indulge in ethnic lunches, as well as play language games, do scavenger hunts, and other good treats, all in the name of communication! So whether you take French, Spanish, Italian, or Latin, you're sure to find a whole new exciting world of language open up before your eyes.

"My dog ate my homework, really." How many times have you wanted to use that excuse, just because you didn't feel like taking the time to do it? If you are this type of student, then start doing your homework! But if you truly don't understand an assignment, or feel like your math book may as well have been written in Nepalese for all of the words you don't understand in it, then the supportive teachers in the Special Education Department are at your service. These caring teachers and tutors devote their day to one-on-one sessions and smaller classrooms with students who need that tiny extra push towards success. They even are willing to lend an ear when you need to talk also. How's that for dedication?

Computers are the future, yet so many people are computer-illiterate. Well, that can be changed. The obvious solution is to take a computer class at AHS. The teachers here are competent in what they do, and they are working hard to help us understand the ways of the modern world. There are various classes to take, from typing to Visual Basic to Multimedia I and II. Plus, with all the new technology, there's so much to learn, and so many opportunities!

A one, two, a one-two-three-four! And the band plays on. Wow, you think to yourself, we really do have a good band! Impressed? How about all the exciting Top 40 performances you've watched over the course of your high school career? Let's not forget the awe-inspiring performance of Oliver we enjoyed. Daydreaming once again, you ponder how all of these events fit together. They all make up the performing arts department, silly! It's a wonder that Mr. Files and Ms. Watson maintain their sanity while successfully keeping harmony among the many extracurricular and co-curricular activities that make up this versatile department.

Do you feel suppressed? Do you need to express your creativity? Why not take up pottery? Perhaps a drawing class would be more your style. Our art department offers a wide variety of courses to satisfy the abundant needs of our growing student body. So however you decide to demonstrate your individuality, the talented art staff is ready to guide you into the new millennium.

Ever walk down the school hallway and swear you smell the sweet scent of Mom's cooking? Or have you ever seen a bunch of students carrying around plastic dolls and diaper bags and wondered why? Is this the real world? Not quite, but it comes pretty close. The Family & Consumer Science Department teaches students the fundamentals of raising a family, including how to care for a child and how to prepare nutritious meals. Through classes like these, the students of AHS are able to get a grip on skills they'll need in later life. And if you don't pass, you're grounded!

English As A Second Language

Steven Ross

Do you find yourself unable to understand the conversations around you? Don't worry, you're not alone. It's time to learn English! If English is not your first language, AHS has the answer. His name is Steven Ross, and he teaches foreign students how to speak, read, and write in English. Whatever your primary language may be, Mr. Ross will have you speaking English faster than you can say . . . well, whatever you want!

Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator

He's our very own Substance Abuse Prevention Coordinator and just about everyone would like to be on his good side. Mr. Jack Dougherty is always around to assist the student body with problems that arise. He also leads a group of peer mediators in solving disputes among students without resorting to violence. Other students who visit his office want to attend an information session on substance abuse. Some wish to go to an Alateen meeting. Some students have questions regarding drugs and alcohol and some just want to talk to this happy-go-lucky Irishman. Whatever the problem, Mr. Dougherty will help you out.

Psychologist

Edward Lynch, Jr.

Have you ever felt like you were just about to go crazy out of your mind? If so, then Dr. Edward Lynch, Jr. is probably the person you'd want to chat with. Doc is always there to help you out when you need it, regardless of the problem. Calm down and have a nice talk with him if you're having family-related problems or just need someone to lend an ear. Listen to what he has to say, too. His jokes tend to be knee-slappers.

Officers

Steven Draghetti

Some kid cut you off in the McDonald's parking lot as he floored by you without even looking. What a bummer! This scenario would never happen at AHS because Officer Karen Langevin polices our school every minute of every school day. She is not only an officer for the Town of Agawam, she is also a D.A.R.E. (Drug Abuse Resistance Education) officer for the Agawam Public Schools. Don't get caught roaming out of bounds during class time and you better not even think about starting a fight. You just may find yourself being taken away in handcuffs. There to assist her is the Safety Officer for the Town of Agawam, Steven Draghetti. Surely, those security cameras in the new office are more help than a hindrance as well. After all, one person can't do it all.

Karen Langevin

Library

Charlotte Shimel

What do you mean your term-paper is due tomorrow? You dash from your locker to catch the bus, frantically trying to sort out your plan of action. But wait, there it is, the answer to your prayers . . . the school library!! You fly through the doors . . . and are immediately lost again. After all, who paid attention in that social hour (I mean library class) freshman year? Just as sweat begins to break on your forehead, Mrs. Shimel steps from behind the desk and reminds you to breathe. Phew! What would we do without our trusty library staff to guide us through our vast library and open up whole new worlds of knowledge?

Nurse

She cares for the sick and helps the wounded. She is the person whom you know will greet you when you're just not feeling up-to-snuff. Feeling nauseous in geometry (I wouldn't be surprised)? Take a visit to the nurse's office. It is conveniently located right near the gym and cafeteria for all those floor hockey and volleyball injuries as well as for the time you got nailed in the noggin with a crispy chicken nugget. The nurse is also responsible for checking 1400 pairs of eyes and ears every year. Unfortunately, this year was Mrs. Hallaman's last. After 21 years, she decided she had seen enough eyes and ears and it was time to say goodbye. Taking over her position upon retirement is Marianne Swenson. Next time you're feeling a little under the weather, go see the nurse but don't be surprised to see a new face. Mrs. Hallaman will be sadly missed but don't fear, Mrs. Swenson is here to fill the void in keeping AHS healthy.

Data Processing

In case you hadn't noticed, computers are taking over every one's life. The end of the millennium is creeping up on us fast. The year 2000 is just around the corner and, in this computer-dominated world, it's probably good to know a little more than just how to turn one on. That's Fred Messier's job. He helps students with typing, office, and computer skills, as well as printing our report cards for 1400 students and managing all the equipment for the town and the Agawam Public Schools. With such a big responsibility and 26 years under his belt, it's a good thing we have him to help, because no one knows what the future will bring, and we should be ready for anything.

Fred Messier

Custodians

Ven Grumoli and Stan Merrick

"Stan, please come to the office, NOW!" This call for help is often heard over the PA system. Our excellent custodians help us if we forget a locker combination, and they clean the school after we've been there every day, which, believe it or not, is a big job. Then, as if that's not enough work, they also stay after school to clean, help the various sports teams set up for games, and open the locked bathrooms and jammed lockers for the desperate athletes. Our custodians are a valuable part of our school. Without them, our building would look like our bedrooms!

Cafeteria Staff

The most common phrase heard in the halls and classrooms of AHS besides "Can I go to the bathroom?" is "I'm hungry!" There to pacify our growling stomachs are our ever-cheerful cafeteria ladies, always ready to supply us with food and a smile. They do a lot of work to provide us with the healthiest and most delicious meals they can prepare for us.

Boys Tennis

This year's team was led by a strong senior squad, with many of them playing since they were freshmen. Jeff Lyman and Teddy Lee were outstanding leaders and players. Lyman was successful in many of his matches and was Agawam's number one single. Despite a deceiving 6-8 record they had many 3-2 losses, which could have gone either way. Doubles partners of Jeff Machia and Mike Halpy had a successful season and helped the team reach the playoffs in which they sustained a 3-2 loss to a strong Holyoke team. With the loss of many seniors, the '99 team looks to be a rebuilding year, but has hopes of being a perennial powerhouse in the world of Western Mass. tennis.

Andrea poses cheerfully, unaware of Joyce's mischief.

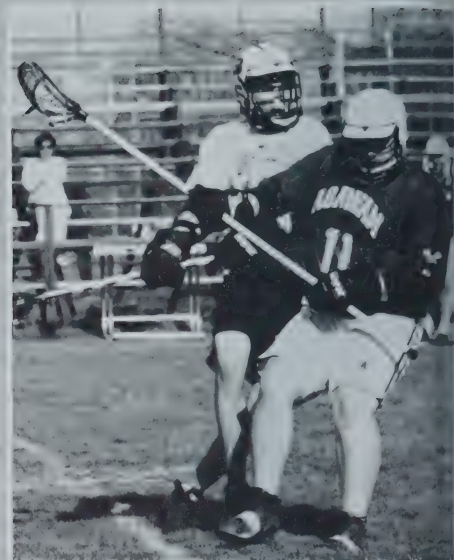

This year's success was brought about by hard work and great leadership. The team was led by co-captains Maureen Dimock and Courtney Locke. The turning point for the girls was the win against South Hadley. They pulled away with a 3-2 win. From then on their play began to pick up due to strong work ethics. Winning became repetitious as they won 8 out of their last 11 matches. Janice Balicki and Kaitlin White won many matches which eventually led the team to achieve a tournament berth. Despite a good season they suffered a 4-1 loss to a strong Ludlow team. Although they graduated All League captain Maureen Dimock, the upcoming 1999 team is looking forward to strong leadership and experience from Kaitlin White and Andrea Cizek. They hope to place high in the Western Mass. tournament next year.

Boys Lacrosse

Boys Lacrosse:

With no where to go but up, the 1998 boys' lacrosse team did just that. The captains were senior attackman Ryan Grealis and junior mid-fielder Dan Balbony. Coach Sr. George led them to a 4-11 record, but records can be deceiving. As only a second year varsity team, they held their own against well established programs which have been playing for many years. The Brownies midfield was strengthened with surprise help from first year foreign exchange student Simon Tyberg. First team All-Leaguer Dan Balbony, along with Glenn Corlett and Ryan Grealis, who received honorable mention for All-League, led a balanced attack and scored the majority of the goals for the team. The biggest win of the season was a 7-6 comeback victory over rival West Side. With that win and strong underclassmen play by Greg Jubinville, Eric Pedersen, Kevin Grealis, and Dave Moore, the '99 team plans on having an excellent season.

George aggressively defends his man.

The Agawam Girls' lacrosse team was led by Coach Grieve to the state preliminary round which capped off a successful season. They had a strong batch of players. Five of them made first team All Western Mass, and two of them made second team All Western Mass. Three of the five were seniors Lindy Gage, Jill Demarco, and Cheryl Lanier. With their leadership and strong play from sophomores Ann Paquette, Sheri Benton, and Katie Shannon, the team ended up with an excellent 12-5 record. Captains Lindy Gage and Sarah Drenzek played well against tough teams such as Minnechaug and a close loss to perennial powerhouse Longmeadow. The 1998 team hopes that next years team will do just as well and make it further in the playoffs. With the returners they have and excellent coaching there is definitely a positive outlook for next year's season. Heather Hughes, Nikira Reshamwala, Christina Gregory, and Shelley Rose are next year's senior varsity returnees and will show excellent leadership and great skills.

OUT!!

Austin takes another victorious lap around the bases.

The boys' baseball team was off to a successful start under great coaching from first year coach, Pete Clark. They were led by 11 experienced seniors, many of whom were returning varsity players. This proved to be a big asset for the Brownies as they went 15-6 on the season. They had many standouts on the team. Senior Austin Kimball provided a powerful bat and connected on many home runs during the season. The pitching duties were left to their ace, sophomore Brian Sr. Jean, and juniors Dave Federico and Kevin Mattson. Defensively, Jay Hanscom and Mike Wing played well in the middle infield, while Bryan O'Quinn shined in the center field. Despite beating Westfield 4-0 in the regular season, the Bombers proved to be too powerful in the playoffs and beat Agawam 10-4. Besides the loss in the playoffs, the Brownies had a strong season and hope next year's team will do better. Although they will be losing many valuable seniors, many strong players coming up like Mike Carney, Matt Albano, Chris Wayre, and Ryan Drobot will help the Brownies have another successful season.

Jay won't let any West Side runner get by.

Softball

The 1998 girls softball team had an outstanding season. Coach Lickley led the girls to a Western Mass title and eventually to States. Captains Kristen Patterson, Amber Conte, Stephanie Fleming, and Amy Mastroianni rallied the team to a 16-3 season record. Their losses came to excellent Westfield and Amherst teams. Alison Jackobek and Lindsay Mason both pitched an outstanding season. Catcher Dianna DiStefano did well and gained a spot on the first team All Western Mass. Kristen Patterson however was the heart of the team. She was one of the best shortstops around and really worked hard and led the team. She was also a first team All Western Mass pick. Agawam dominated during the season as well as they did in the playoffs. They made it to Western Mass and captured the title but States proved to be rough as they unfortunately lost to Holy Name. However they weren't a team that just rolled over and died, they went out with a fight. They are very proud of their hard work and pride that they put into the team. They hope to do just as well next year. As they have in the past, they are sure to carry on their tradition of hard work and winning.

The 1998 boys track team was led by second year coach, Bill Dillon. Captains Ian Lane and Brad Tilden gave the experience and help needed to lead a young team to a 4-5 record and an 8th place overall in the Western Mass. finals. Ian captured first place in the high hurdles and the speedy Barry Ward took a 5th place in the 200. Marc Pedraza took 3rd in the discus, while Kevin Hill took 6th in the javelin. The jumpers, Jay Flood, who took 3rd in the long jump, and Peter Birtzas, who took 4th in the triple jump, helped the team win many events during the regular season. Lee Junkler helped gain many points for the track team by winning many pole-vauling events. Jay Gagne was a force to be reckoned with, performing well in the 300 meter low hurdles. With many returners coming back in the 1999 season, the Brownies look to be a power in Western Mass.

Ashlee doesn't THINK she can fly . . . she really can.

Cassie is determined to clear the bar.

Look up, Leila.

The 1998 girls track team, once again, had a successful season, under the experienced coaching of Dean Vichiarelli. Despite a young team, captain Lonnie DeLuca and Aimee Loudfoot helped to lead the team to a near perfect record of 8-1. Their only loss came to a powerful Cathedral team, who went on to win Western Mass. This year's sprinters were led by the fast feet of Barbara Maloni, Aimee Loudfoot, and Maria Buendo. Freshman Heather Newcomb helped to earn a lot of points in the mile for the Brownies, while Melissa Coughlin, Danielle DeForge, and Pia Bertone-Groves rounded it up for the two mile. The team had many successful pole-vaulters such as Lauren DeLuca and the triple jumper was mastered by Lonnie DeLuca and Melissa Crough. The throwing team was led by senior Jessica DeGray and Western Mass. finalist Lindsey Hadden. With superior performances from Lindsey Hadden, Ann Marie Dimauro, and handler Christine Campbell, the girls gave a nice showing at states. With the team finishing in 3rd place at Western Mass., the girls look forward to having an excellent season next year from all of the experienced returning underclassmen and incoming seniors.

Who's got the ball?

With a tough and rugged boy's football team, Agawam was able to dominate many teams, as they went on to a 4-6 record. The veteran coaching from Dean Vecchiarelli helped Agawam maintain a fairly steady season despite many injuries. The motivation given from the captains, who were Brian Gallagher, Bob Fuller, and Marc Pedraza, helped improve the Brownies work ethic and determination. With the pin-point passing of Brian St. Jean and the superb receiving of Jason Daigneu, Agawam's offense was able to keep the opposition on their toes. Whenever the passing game failed, the team could count on the power running of fullback Brian Gallagher and the quickness of Mike O'Conner. The Brownies, relying heavily on their running game, used the talented offensive line of T.J. Sexton, Mike Lovely, Bob Fuller, and Rob Liard to do the dirty work and make the holes for the runningbacks. On the opposite side of the field, Agawam was a hard hitting team. While Eric Pederson, Marc Pedraza, Brian Gallagher, and Bob Fuller were doing an excellent job taking down the opposition, Ryan Drobot, Jason Daigneu, and Dennis Liprak did a superb job defending the passing game. With the annual Thanksgiving Day game coming up, Agawam was prepared for anything, including mother nature. Even the torrential down pour and the cold weather couldn't even stop the Brownies from beating them "Puppies" 21-14 in West Side. Despite the fact that Agawam will be losing many valuable seniors, next year's team still looks to be promising with a strong batch of varsity returners.

This year's team was supported by ten experienced seniors, most of them playing since freshman year. Captains Heather Hughes and Sarah Larif led the team with great leadership and enthusiasm. A lot of upperclassmen stepped up and led the team. Senior Patty Zerra became the team's leading scorer. In her left wing position, she did an excellent job of producing goals for the team. Strong midfield play came from Sarah Larif and Sarah Nacewicz. Center half Eva Donnerhack also displayed good skills to help the team. The goal was guarded by juniors Mary-Elizabeth Dupelle and Kristen Kocor, two evenly talented players. Their record does not say enough about the team as a whole. 3-8-5 may not seem all that impressive, but they are by all means one of the toughest teams in Western Mass. Next year's team will be led by experienced upperclassmen. They hope to continue their tradition of hard work and have high hopes of a tournament berth next year.

Boys Soccer

Umberto deftly snags the ball.

With a team filled with varsity experience, the 1998 boys varsity soccer team had a difficult time making the transition to the powerful Smith division. With Agawam coming off a successful season last year, they finished with a disappointing 6-10-2 record. Their coach, Dwight Northrup, tried to help prepare his team to face the perennial powers of Cathedral, Ludlow, and West Springfield. They were led by captains Rich Rodriguez, Dave Thomas, Jay Flood, and Dave Federico. With Rodriguez, Federico, and Flood playing defense, they proved to be a thorn in the side for many teams, as they had a hard time finding the back of the net. Juniors Joe DiVirgilio, Jon Ashwell, and senior Brian Machos helped control the midfield, along with the help of the team's ironman, Dave Thomas. Juniors Barry Ward and Brian Lopes, who both found a way to miss the net a lot, did the majority of the scoring for the team. Peter Bitzas and Umberto Santinello showed the underclassman how to finish with style, while Adam Blair and Dan Balboni showed them what hard work and determination was all about. Next year's team looks to have a successful season with many varsity returners, along with a strong batch of J.V. players and hope to start a tradition of winning in the Smith Division.

The girls varsity soccer team was eager to start their 1998 season with help from new underclassmen and six experienced seniors. The team had strong leadership from captain Jessica Dutton, both on and off the field. This year's team had a lot of potential and excellent play from the newcomers. Despite a 7-7-4 record the girls played strong against good teams such as Westfield whom they held to a tie the first time they played each other. The lime light was passed around to many players this year, never continuously shining on one person. Great defensive play came from Sheri Benton, Katie Shannon, and Kara Tierney. The midfield was led by Jen Lyman and Gina Loudfoot while Jill Gendron and Courtney Adamczyk produced goals for the team. The six seniors showed experience and knowledge as they led the team to a playoff berth. Seniors Melissa Core and Kornelia Moysis each stepped up and scored a goal against Central which helped to gain an important win for the team. Despite injury Franca Bonavita made some key saves as well as sophomore Laura Bucalo. Next year's team has a lot of potential and a great season to look forward to.

Golf

The boys golf team was off to a good start right away, as they opened up with a win over South Hadley, beating them 15-3. That was only the beginning of winning season. Captain Chris Rousseau helped lead the team to a record of 16-3-1. He was probably the team's most valuable player. He made first team All Western Mass., along with Andy Green, who also showed great play and potential as a sophomore. Freshman Bill Menard was an excellent addition to the team and he made second team All Western Mass. and first team All League. At the end of the season they went on a winning streak and won their final seven matches. They went on to post-season play and finished second in Western Mass. and fifth in the state. Chris Rousseau did a fine job in finishing in second place in States. Despite this significant loss, Agawam will try to maintain another season of excellence with the return of Shawn Biebel, Andy Green, Bill Menard, and Ryan Morgan. With these exceptional players, Agawam will have the experience and the skill that is needed to continue their winning ways.

Cheerleading

The varsity cheerleaders demonstrate their skills during the pep rally.

Agawam High School cheerleaders are relentless Brownies that never stop cheering and supporting all of Agawam's finest. Not only do the girls commit themselves to most home events, they also attend several competitions each year. The team is led by coach Kim Hebert who motivates them to "raise the roof" and "rock the house!" The cheerleaders are committed throughout the summer and were invited for the first time this year to a private camp held by Cheerpower. Michelle Beaudette and Cathy Dickinson are the co-captains who led the team in several school activities such as the pep rally, the bonfire, and helping to promote school spirit all year long. Another first for them was competing at a competition in the fall at Shepard Hill in which they took third place. The girls have a busy schedule from February to March in which they will participate in six different competitions. They are looking forward to having a successful run at Westford, Mass and States.

Agawam gymnastics was definitely once again one of the most dominating teams in Western Mass. For the past few years they have carried on the tradition of hard work and excellence. Agawam had a successful season with a 17-2 overall record under the excellent coaching of Angela Sullivan. The teams captains Lindsey Hadden and Lisa Marsh provided the team with strong leadership as they led the team all the way to a league title. Sophomore Leila Sekkal showed excellent all around skills in many meets which helped the team gain a lot of valuable points. Senior Lindsey Hadden was tough enough to come back and have a successful senior year after sustaining three knee surgeries. She had an outstanding vault and superb all around skills. Underclassmen Stephanie Harnois and Elizabeth Clark did a cartwheel of a job and have promising futures. Seniors Amanda Peters and Lisa Marsh did a good job competing and earned points that were greatly appreciated. The 1998 season was a memorable one for the seniors and a sample of what's to come in future years.

Volleyball

Agawam began a new chapter in sports history this year with the addition of a girls volleyball team. First year coach Patricia Demers helped guide a group of first year volleyball players in a rough Western Mass league. The team was led by senior captains Barbara Maloni, Shelley Rose, Juliana Batista, and Nina Konig. With Agawam off to a slow start things began to pick up for them as they finished the second half of the season 4-3. The Brownies showed a lot of courage and heart as they defeated many established programs to end the season on a high note. The Brownies had several quality players that contributed valuable aspects to the team. Juliana Batista had a vicious serve, Barbara Maloni had a powerful spike, and Shelley Rose was an excellent setter. Tammy Norton was a good, reliable player. Agawam's biggest win came at the end of the season to West Springfield. As for the future of the volleyball team, right now it is looking very bright. They are looking forward to upcoming talent and returning players. This years team has been a positive addition and they are on their way to building a successful program.

Cross Country

You want us to run WHERE?

Maybe they won't notice if I take a shortcut.

Keep it up, Kelly, you're almost there.

Boys and girls cross country became a new addition to Agawam's wide variety of sports. Coach Bill Dillon helped bring out the hidden talents of his new long distance runners. The boy's team was led by captain Jay Gagne, who was also one of the team's best assets. The girls team was led by Kristin Pisano and Kelly Willett. Despite small numbers the girls team still gave a great effort in all their meets. The boys team received quality finishing times from Anthony Goodrow and Jeremiah Maloney. After the boys lost their first meet to West Springfield, 45-16, senior Jay Gagne would not allow it to happen a second time. The second time around Agawam was better prepared as they trained even harder than usual. Agawam captured a victory beating West Springfield, 26-31. Both the boys and the girls team look to be drawing more student athletes next season and hope to become more competitive teams.

This year's boys basketball team faced the rough competition, but never quit. They were led by knowledgeable third year Coach Grumoli. He was helped by senior captains Matt Albano, Dave Strole, and Marc Pedraza. After losing Matt Albano to knee injury, Agawam was left with little varsity experience. Most of the team was made up of underclassmen. The team's leading scorer was inside player, Dave Strole, who was averaging 18 points a game. The team's strongest all around player was Marc Pedraza, while David Federico had a sweet touch from behind the free point arc. Erik Bodurtha contributes solid minutes as a big rebounder for the Brownies. A big win for Agawam came from Greenfield. With many injuries and the loss of many players, Coach Grumoli called up a few JV players, such as Sean Mercadante and Adam Swarth, who both did a great job for the team. This year's seniors plan on finishing their season with strong play and a successful second half of the year.

Kara, Sherry, and Laura are awfully interested in something on the floor.

Agawam girls basketball has built a dynasty around the superior coaching of Lou Conte. Despite the loss of many valuable seniors, this year's team is still one of the most respected powerhouses in Western Mass. The leaders of the team were four-year varsity players Melissa Core, Pia Bertone-Gross, and Barbara Maloni. The Brownies have manhandled every team with the exception of Minnechaug. That was one of their most challenging games in which they faced each other in front of a packed house. The girls were able to clip the Falcons 44-39. All Western Mass offensive threat Barbara Maloni has been lighting up the boards all season long. She broke the school's all time scoring record with over 1,400 points, and she also scored a record high of 49 points against Monument Mountain. In the paint the girls received excellent post-up play from Pia Bertone-Gross while Melissa Core dominated the boards. Katie Shannon provided hard work and buzzer beating shots while Jill Gendron ran the point. Kara Tierney was a consistent player and always made sure everyone was having fun. The Brownies are undefeated and are looking to go for their sixth straight Valley League championship. They have high hopes that all of the hard work will pay off and lead them to a Western Mass title.

Wrestling

Agawam wrestling has once again maintained their reputation of top performance from their wrestlers. Coach Phil Tomkiel is in his last season and plans to go out in style as he has high hopes in defending his Western Mass. title. Agawam has several returning Western Mass. champs, Dave Moore (112), Mark Engleman (145), and Adam Blair (152). Captains Mark Engleman and Adam Blair lead the team to numerous victories, through their dedication and experience. The Brownies biggest match was against rival West Springfield as they dominated the whole match and won the meet 32-24. Adam, Chris Wayte, and Scott Murphy prevailed for the Brownies, which helped them clinch the win. Coach Tomkiel has an excellent shot in winning Western Mass., with such stand-out wrestlers as freshman Eric Hogan, Ryan Gamache, Rob Creanza, and Justin Perrangelo. Agawam looks to pin the competition and show why they have been the dominant program for the past few decades.

Boys Skiing

The 1998-99 Boys Ski Team

Brandon leads the pack.

Mike, Rob, & Jay think they look cute in those outfits . . . don't they?

The boys practice on rollerblades before hitting the slopes.

Nick skates with ease.

Jack concentrates on maintaining his balance.

I think these boys are ready for the mountain.

Despite the poor skiing conditions, the Agawam boys ski team was still able to prepare for the season ahead of them. After driving by and seeing them rollerblade at the funeral home in preparation for the season, you have to wonder what Coach Glen Olsen is doing. Apparently though it has paid off, for the Brownies have several talented skiers, who are led by captains Jay Flood and Mike Defilipi. The team has averaged a third place finish in their meets at Berkshire East. This year's returning seniors, Jay Flood, Mike Defilipi, and Rob Santinello have performed excellently. They have had impressive times and Mike and Rob have qualified for states. Underclassmen Jack Pierson, Jim Evans, and Sean Devall, have all performed well and are definitely skiers to watch. The team has had an excellent season and look to have a successful run at Western Mass.

Jack looks a little chilly.

Rob wishes he was on the slopes.

Girls Skiing

Laura enjoys her role as "lodge" jester.

Are these two twins or just friends?

Kerry, Laura, and Caroline use the "buddy" system on the slopes.

Getting there is half the fun.

This skier attempts to become one with the mountain.

The girls skiing team did a fine job this year under Coach Jim Graveline. Despite being bumped up to the A division, his young team worked hard and it showed. Three junior captains Laura Charest, Caroline Sherpa, and Kerry St. Laurent have done an excellent job leading the girls to a memorable season. Due to a lack of snow the season looked bleak, but with intense workouts and dedication they were able to make the best of the time they had on the slopes. Laura was the number one down hill skier, while Kerry was the girls' number one slalom skier. This year's team had encouraging young talent from sophomores Ashley Guiel and Janet Jack. The girls finished the season with a fifth overall average. Next season the Brownies will be returning their entire team and with hard work and determination in the off season, they will become one of the top ski teams in Western Mass.

I have to go down the mountain too?

Sporting the goggle look.

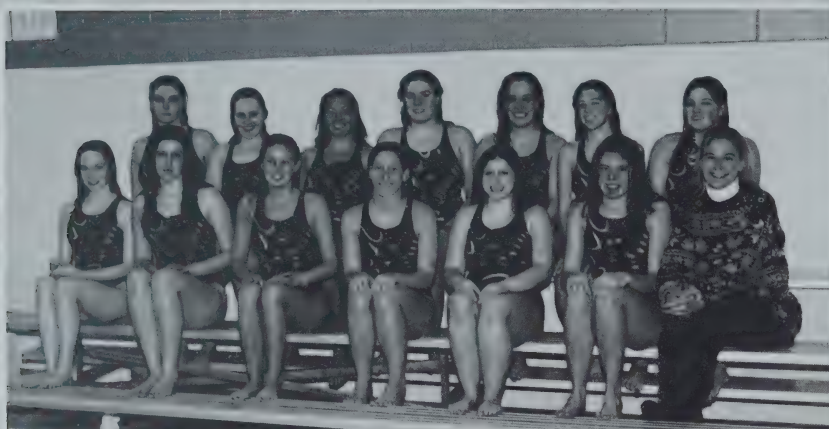

Jen and Amy's red noses only prove that they are dedicated skiers.

Now what?

Brendan breast-strokes his way down the lane.

Bridger gracefully glides through the water.

Boys and girls swimming in Agawam are expanding and improving. The boys team is beginning to grow in numbers and both the teams have successful divers. Coach Kim Scofield is in her third year and she coaches both of the teams. Brendan Killrain and Charlie Roberts are two experienced captains that lead the boys and help them excel in many aspects. Co-captains Brenna McGinn and Shaunessy Egan lead by example with outgoing and positive attitudes. The records of both the teams may not show how much unity and hard work the individuals give to make themselves better. Brendan Killrain has many accomplishments to be proud of, as a returning Western Mass champion, he has helped the team tremendously. Brendan and Charlie will both be expected to fair well in the Western Mass finals. Sophomore Nathan Adamski is the boys only diver and he gives one hundred percent to it. The girls have many standouters. The only underclassman diver to return is Lauren Kunkler who has improved her diving skills and is doing excellent this year. Other important seniors are Danielle DeForge who is a confident breaststroke swimmer and Bridger Donovan who excels in the freestyle competition. They also have hard working Alicyn Siano who is great at the butterfly. Sophomore Shannon Costa is definitely one of the teams greatest competitors. She is a superb freestyle swimmer who is on her way to a Western Mass title. They also have freshman standout Christina O'Brien who has become a real player. With the combination of young talents blossoming and senior leadership both teams are hoping to create a big splash at the end of the season. Both the boys and the girls have high hopes of bright futures.

Hockey

Hockey

After a somewhat slow start, the Agawam hockey team turned things up and continued to dominate the Fay division. Led by Coach Fran Pycko and captain Andy Radwanski and Josh Sprague, the Brownies blew away the competition with their fast skating, hard checking, and in-your-face kind of hockey. If you have guys like seniors Andy Radwanski and Tony Kosinski, juniors Brian Pagella and Dave Gusek, and sophomore Tony Leclair, it's no wonder why the scores always get ran up. A team is only as good as its defense and this couldn't be any more true for the Brownies who are led by the hard-hitting tandem of Josh Sprague and Brian Gilhooly. Senior Mike Schmidt has been the biggest asset for Agawam this year, as he has been outstanding between the pipes. The Brownies' biggest game of the season came in a 6-1 blowout at Amherst, to win yet another league title. The seniors look to pass the puck on to the talented underclassmen and keep the Brownie winning tradition going.

After all, where else can you get shagadellic with Austin Powers and the Fembots? Spice it up with the Spice Girls? Skip down the yellow brick road with Dorothy and friends? See the rainbow of colors in Rainbow Brite? Or get a taste of Brownie spirit with a bunch of football players? Surely this isn't your usual Friday night. # Orange & Brown Day

The Freshmen were enthusiastic and hopeful this year.

The colors are everywhere. Orange and Brown make up the whole spectrum, and there is nothing else. Students and teachers are highly encouraged to wear orange and brown clothes. People bring in balloons, posters and confetti to decorate the gym during the pep rally. The band and the cheerleaders get dressed up for the occasion and endeavor to awaken the Agawam High School spirit in all of us. Our school fight song, "Joyous and Ever Loyal," can be heard all throughout the building. The sound gets louder and louder, as each class fights to deafen the others. What is the reason behind all of this? It's so that the entire student body can show support for the football team for the annual match with the West Side Terriers, and it helps everyone appreciate the colors orange and brown.

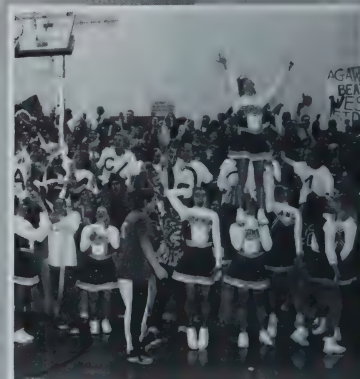

The victory was almost taken by the Juniors.

The Seniors came to the rally prepared to win.

A rare moment of bonding.

The cheerleaders were a big help to the Sophomores.

Bonfire

The football team is getting excited about the upcoming game.

People of all ages; students and alumni, faculty and parents; gathered together in the frigid November air to support the AHS football team. The cheerleaders were there, as well as Mawaga, ready to generate enthusiasm in the crowd. The gridiron parents joined in the excitement and performed a cheer of their own. The band and colorguard also demonstrated their Brownie spirit by using their skill to lead us in singing our fight song, "Joyous and Ever Loyal." This year's Bonfire was a success; the Agawam Brownies overcame the West Side Terriers at the Thanksgiving Day Game.

The AHS Colorguard has practiced long and hard for this day.

Thanksgiving Day Game

Mike never gives up.

Asbel, Lou and Chris are thinking how badly they want to win.

Mike's fast feet help him dodge his opponents while maintaining his tight grip on the ball.

Nobody can get past Marc.

... And the battle continues. It was November 27, 1998, and on this cold, wet Thanksgiving Day, the sun was not shining, and nobody wanted to come out and play. But they had no choice, for the ongoing bitter rivalry between the Agawam Brownies and the Westside Terriers persevered inevitably, despite the pouring rain and muddy field. Dedicated fans bundled up and ventured out to witness yet another victory for Agawam.

Westside scored first, making it 6-0, until running back Brian Gallagher made a 5 yard touchdown. With the score now 7-6, QB Brian St. Jean was sacked for the safety and Westside took the lead 8-7 just before halftime. Westside scored again, when Bob Fuller recovered a fumble and passed to Gallagher, who ran it in, putting Agawam 2 points shy of the lead. A 2 point conversion put the Brownies ahead 15-14, and, with a pass from Ryan Drobor, Gallagher scored again, denching the defeat with the final score of 21-14, the Brownies once again emerging victorious and shining with pride.

Agawam won't give up without a fight.

Coach Vec proudly cheers for the Brownies.

He may be down, but he's still got the ball.

Mike is determined not to drop the ball.

A perfect catch!

Semi-Formal

What are you doing, Mike, catching flies?

Kevin is waiting for his applause. Everyone clap while he takes a bow.

Asbel is "Too Sexy."

I'm supposed to put my tie WHERE?

Katie and Nicole just wanna have fun.

It was 6:30 p.m. on Monday, December 30, 1998. Chez Joseph was already stirring with excitement as members of the class of 1999 hurried into the building to escape the frigid air, and so began the annual Semi Formal. Cameras flashed and voices buzzed during the social hour as friends met up and herded into the dining room where dinner was served soon after. Tom Melbourne, as always, did an exceptional job choosing a mix of fast and slow dance songs, topping off the night with the class song "Party Like it's 1999," and finishing with KC & JoJo's romantic ballad "All My Life" which seemed to appease the crowd thoroughly. Throw in a little swing dancing and a conga line, and this unforgettable night will be remembered always. One day we're going to look back and think we had one of the best times of our lives. We know Asbel did.

The Grand Ballroom at Chez Josef is beautifully lit, limos are arriving like it's Oscar night, and satin and sequins are all a glimmer on the dance floor. Prom night is an anxiously awaited evening throughout the entire year. For the juniors, it is a new experience as they begin their fourth and final year of high school. For the seniors, however, it is one of the last opportunities they have to be all be together as a class. Agawam High School held its annual Junior-Senior Prom on April twenty-fourth, 1998. With black, silver, and white adorning the tables, dresses and jewelry sparkling in the light, and Whitney Houston's "One Moment in Time" playing in the background, the upperclassmen danced the night away. The disc jockey blared all the latest tunes along with some other get-up-and-dance classics and Chez Josef provided the cuisine that would make the night perfect. The chaperones chose seniors Sheree Cardin and Norm Gagne as the King and Queen of Prom 1998 as the night gradually came to a close. For some it was the end, for others, a new beginning, a look to the future and what is to come.

Who could forget Kristin Chmielewski's "I Can't Make You Love Me" or Justin Bushey's "Zoot Suit Riot"? Justin Gorman "Spoon"ed out a great number and Diane Griffin gave an "Angel"ic performance as well. Top 40 is all about the good music and the hilarious emcees. It's a night one will remember for a long time, so why not show up and see for yourself?

Kristin gets personal with the microphone.

Oliver

Mrs. Comey and Mr. Bumble share a loving embrace.

For three consecutive nights in November of '98, the bright and talented vocalists of Mr. Files's Jazz Choir and Show Choir classes came together and graced our auditorium with the much-anticipated production of "Oliver". The ever-popular Disney classic was performed by many talented students. Seniors Justin Bushey (Fagin), Tara Fleming (Mrs. Sowerberry), and Kristin Chmielewski (Mrs. Corney), belted out some lovely melodies and did some stellar acting in this performance. Newcomers Jay Yarmowicz (Oliver) and Matt Couture (Dodger) also played outstanding roles. The story of an orphan boy who seemed so hopeless and eventually finds his way back into the arms of his loving family left not one dry eye in the house. This performance was definitely memorable. Bravo!

Concert Band

Little Duplesis practices diligently for the upcoming concert.

"Please bring two dollars and a canned-good." These are familiar words to members of the Concert Band. Many of these talented musicians have been excelling in music since the fifth grade. Those long years of commitment definitely shine through as the band serenades the ears of both band parents and members of the community. After practicing countless Tuesday nights with Miss Watson and numerous concerts and critiques, the band joins many others across the nation in competition at Virginia Beach in April. In the past this band has been highly ranked among its peers and hopefully this year will prove to be no exception.

Marching Band

Mario calmly leads the band at the Big "E."

The Honor Guard proudly displays our school banner.

A common occurrence at Agawam High is to observe the individuality of our students. One such display of such behavior comes about when one begins to see cowboys and prairie girls milling through the crowd at a home football game. In fact, no other group is able to take on a role with quite as much enthusiasm and gusto as Marching Band students. Through the years the marching band has experimented with Spanish, Swing, and Blues field show themes, but this year's Western show proved that it was time for an AHS Hoedown. When thinking of this aspect of the music program few people realize that these musicians do so much more than their usual performances at the Big "E" and the various local parades. The Marching Band competes with other high school bands in Connecticut and Massachusetts during the fall season, culminating in State Finals at Boston University. The band proudly placed first in its' class at Finals and were proclaimed champions. As one can imagine, the bus ride home held many satisfied musicians with their heads held high and their "eyes with pride."

Jazz Band

A boy walks down the hall with a huge, black case. Curious, you follow him as he winds his way down the stairs. Strains of "In the Mood" drift to your ears and he opens the door. Ah-ha! It's the Jazz Band rehearsing their latest number. This versatile group kept the audience swinging at the Inter-generational Dance this November and delighted diners at the Chamber of Commerce Breakfast as well. Not only is it enjoyable to listen to this band, but it is also exciting. Competitive by nature, the jazz band stormed the ranks of bands throughout Massachusetts and finished well, earning yet more honors for Agawam High School.

Indoor Colorguard

What do flags, sabers and rifles all have to do with the music program? No, they are not planning a raid on West Side! The colorguard combines every one of these items with a bit of grace and splendor to truly make an impact on their audience. These talented girls add that extra splash of color to the Marching Band in the fall with their challenging flag and rifle work. Nurtured by senior captain Jen McGuire as she worked closely with Miss Watson, the group has blossomed enough to become a top contender in state competitions. The guard has planned a Phantom of the Opera show for the 1999 winter indoor season and through the combined efforts of Jen, Miss Watson, and Mr. Files it promises to be an instant hit.

Indoor Percussion Ensemble

The 1999 Indoor Percussion Ensemble

Before your eyes, dozens of band parents swarm onto the gym floor. The crowd settles down as the marching drumline takes the floor. Confused, you listen as the announcer booms, "Is the percussion ensemble ready?" Is this some sort of weird dream, you wonder? Don't pinch yourself yet, the indoor percussion group has only existed for three seasons so far, but it has grown in leaps and bounds. The band members spend an additional two nights a week rehearsing for competitions all over New England during the winter. This enthusiastic group marches through an entire show in wild uniforms surrounded by elaborate props, while managing to play awesome music like "The Hear of the Day" and "Sunlight." All their hard work is paying off as they received a Gold Medal at NESBA State Finals last year and are ready to continue the tradition.

Jazz Choir

Jazz Choir poses for a group shot.

If you've ever had the opportunity to breeze by Mr. Files's room while the Jazz Choir is performing, you would be astonished by the incredible burst of sound that bellows through the hallways. This group of talented vocalists train hard each day to be able to provide us with beautiful concerts such as Broadway Revue, Christmas Concert, "Oliver!", and more. So if you're interested in belting out some near tunes with the group, try out for Jazz Choir. These incredibly talented songbirds will guide you right through it.

"Hark How The Bells, Sweet Silver Bells . . ."

I think we should do that part over again, Mr. Files.

Math Team, show your calculators.

The Math Team is made up of geniuses who come together from all classes to conquer this widely-feared subject. Led by Mrs. Pasternak, they compete against other schools. Their goal? To answer a problem correctly and win! Sorry, it's not quite that simple. These problems are nothing that the ordinary bystander would want to face alone. The AHS Math Team, under the leadership of four courageous seniors, has scored several points and ranks within the top 20 schools of Western Mass.

Whether it's raising money for the Math Team or collecting donations for "Coats For Kids," the math club is always on the move. They spend their precious after-school hours baking for bake sales or Parent's Night, Awards Night and supporting the Math Team in their endeavor to bring glory to our school. Although the most difficult equations the Math Club solves are the calculations of how much money is raised for team transportation, these dedicated students never quit in their mission for excellence.

AFS

The presidents of A.F.S. are planning a trip around the world.

These students are thinking hard.

Can you imagine the memories you'd have if you spent your senior year in a foreign country? Becoming a part of A.F.S. and meeting the exchange students at our school will give you an idea. Each year, under the guidance of Ms. Bruce, the members of A.F.S. offer open arms to the wide-eyed and anxious foreign exchange students. They also do fund-raisers, such as parking cars for the Big E, and they hold an International Exchange weekend, where they host other foreign students from neighboring communities. Being involved in A.F.S. is a great adventure. By the end of the year you'll know some "neat" new words, out most importantly, you'll have some neat new friends.

Danielle, Jessica, and Heather seem excited about something . . . but what?

There comes a time in every student's education when one turns to their best friend and whines, "That's not fair!" Well, the Office of Student Affairs is here to give student's a voice in the way our school is run. Headed by Director Heather Hughes, the O.S.A. controls all school elections, and runs the Winter Olympics. Without them our cries for justice would never be answered. Kudos to Mr. Baggett and the O.S.A.

Cooking Club

What's in there, Melissa?

It's that time of day again. School has just ended. Your hunger can't be controlled, and the yummy aroma of food being prepared is coming down the hall. You do your best to resist it, but it's no use. You can't help being pulled down the hall into the cooking room. Stop in and join the chefs. Not only do they have fun cooking, they also get to eat their work when they're finished. Next time you say, "I can't cook—I always do something wrong!" you know where to turn for help. Members of the Cooking Club, led by Mrs. McCormick, also learn about nutrition and healthier ways to cook. This club also does many activities; presenting the Culinary Arts Festival is one of them.

Something good must have been served here.

Computer Club

Computers are the future, yet so many people are computer-illiterate. Well, that can be changed. The obvious solution is to take a computer class at AHS. The teachers here, including the advisor, Mr. Ramah, are competent in what they do, and they are working hard to help us understand the ways of the modern world. There are various classes to take, from typing to Visual Basic to Multimedia I and II. Plus, with all the new technology, there's so much to learn, and so many opportunities!

Rich, Todd and Jay plan to make millions.

Don't drop it, Jay.

These computer prodigies are going places.

Academic Decathlon

Erik Sunny was a medal winner for AHS Academic Decathlon.

Easy for you to smile, Mrs. Mounimeh... you didn't just go through a whole day of pondering your mind.

Under the love and guidance of Mr. O'Brien and Mrs. Mounimeh, this year's seven member Academic Decathlon team put forth a strong effort at their competition at Pittsfield High School. After the day long process of interviewing and the testing of categories such as art, music, economics, social science, and literature, these seven individuals were exhausted. However, they managed to place second in the Super Quiz. Fortunately, after the long knowledge-draining competition, the members of the Academic Decathlon still had their winning spirit.

Advisors: Mrs. Mounimeh and Mr. O'Brien.

After a long hard day, Laura just wants to retrieve her prize. Is that so much to ask?

Interact

The Interact Student Government is an organization whose purpose is to represent the student body at AHS. Their main objective is to make any necessary adjustments to the school to help improve the environment, both academically and socially. This year, Interact deserves much credit for their accomplishments because they have taken their issues farther than ever before. And since students are the majority of the population in the school, they should have a say as to what happens with it. Interact makes sure of that.

The members of Interact prepare to take action

President Heather Hughes looks thrilled to be in charge.

Advisor Mr. O'Brien is thinking . . . as usual.

Why does Nikira look so worried?

Mirror

What do October, November, February, April, and May all have in common? Give up?? These are the months of the school year in which the MIRROR is distributed. Students of AHS get their grubby little hands on copies of this prestigious publication, not even realizing how much hard work and effort go into its publication. Journalism II students write, edit, and layout their very own newspaper which is truly a "reflection of the times." Editor-in-Chief Brenna McGinn and Associate Editor Kristen Kocot led this year's staff. Both worked together very hard in helping to maintain the MIRROR's award winning reputation.

Uniqorn

Laura and Pam admire their published works.

Imagination is the essence of creativity, and The Uniqorn, the literary magazine for AHS, exhibits this through outstanding talents of writers and their various displays of clever short stories, creative essays, and powerful poetry, written in many different styles. It reveals the skills of some artists as well and is an excellent form of self-expression. So whether you're in the mood to crack a smile, shed a tear, or get lost in a fantasy world, let your imagination run wild in one of a variety of literary masterpieces.

Got any Ideas?

These smiling faces belong to the members of the 1998-99 Uniqorn staff.

The Gay-Straight Alliance

Sarah gets beeped, but Charlie feels the page.

Vice President Kirsten smiles gleefully in Gay Pride

Kicking off its second year, the Gay-Straight Alliance is growing stronger. The group was established last year to encourage the understanding of sexual diversity and to respect the choices and rights of other people without considering their orientation. Apparently it has been a success because the interest in the group seems to have grown larger. Thanks to some brave and dedicated people, students at AHS now have a club that they can relate to when they feel the need. Regardless of your orientation, there's a place in this club for you.

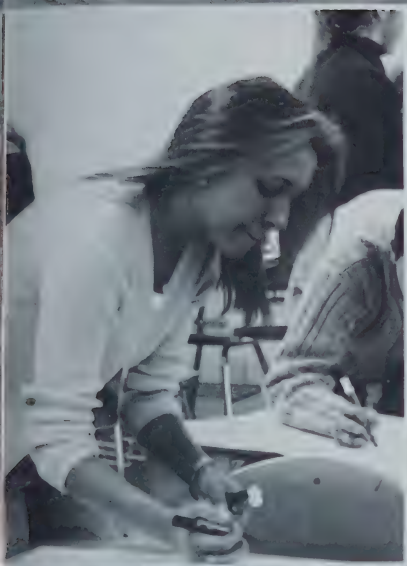

Who couldn't love the G.S.A.?

This is how we're going to spread awareness . . .

F.T.A.

Jill is extremely focused on her "Penny War" poster

Members of AHS Future Teachers of America.

Vice President Sarah Latif and President Jill Abdow prepare for the ever-chaotic Penny War.

The Future Teachers of America is a club designated for those dedicated AHS students who are aspiring teachers. In their efforts to become educators of the future, they run several notable fund raisers. The Penny War is always popular among the 4 rival classes. This year the seniors came out on top with the freshmen class of 2002 close behind. Blood drives throughout the year and reading aloud in elementary school classrooms are also activities which are run by the busy membership. With the help and guidance of advisor Signor Orefice, FTA is always occupied.

Steph, Amanda, and Annie are all smiles at the FTA Meeting.

Peer Leadership

The 1998-99 Peer Leadership officers: Tri-president Charlie Roberts, Treasurer Sara Stevenson, Tri-president Jen McGuire, Secretary Jen Loomis, and Tri-president Shelley Rose.

As you stand in line for the restroom at lunch time you see a sign posted on the wall. "Get your burns out of our bathroom!!" is boldly printed on it in fluorescent magic marker. Perplexed, you read on to find, "Thank you from the Peer Leaders!" neatly penned in the lower corner. Who are these mysterious Peer Leaders? A leader is one who sets an example for others to follow. That is exactly what these determined students do. In September every member of Peer Leadership must sign a contract pledging to remain alcohol, tobacco, and drug free for the year and hopefully forever. Although venturing to Junior High classrooms and teaching drug awareness to the students seems like a huge task in itself, these leaders are involved in many other activities in the high school and around the community. They hang the "Chain of Life" in the cafeteria, sponsor "Save A Sweetheart Day," and send everyone a reality check during the "mock" accident in April. The list of accomplishments that this active group has achieved goes on and on, but one of their proudest moments came earlier this year as they were able to donate seven hundred dollars raised during the "Halloween Costume Day" campaign to Shriner's Hospital. As you can see this year has been extremely eventful for the Peer Leaders and they look forward to tackling drug problems in the future.

Jay laughs in the faces of drug-users.

Prom Committee

These girls are having trouble deciding between prime rib and vegearian.

Tammy and Jessica give the prom colors a nod of approval.

Miss Messina takes charge of the committee.

It's a brisk April night. Your date has arrived on time and your parents only took twenty pictures. Now you're on your way to the night of your life. Strolling into the majestic ballroom you see an array of students and faculty, all in formal wear. Does anyone really notice if the napkins match the tablecloths? The prom committee does. These dedicated students have spent months planning this memorable event so that everyone who attends can relax and enjoy to the fullest.

These members are obviously unimpressed with that suggestion.

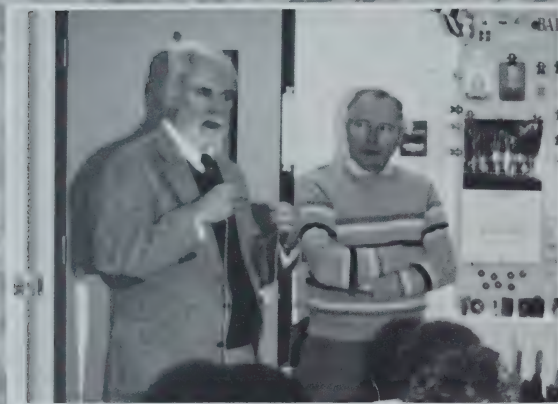

Jessica and Cassie are making sure that the planning runs smoothly.

Quill + Scroll

The 1998-1999 Pulaski/O'Brien chapter of Quill & Scroll International Honor Society was formulated recently with Nikita Reshamwala and Nicole Macey elected as president and vice-president, respectively. Senior members of the Sachem (yearbook), Mirror (newspaper), and Uniqom (literary magazine) united to discuss the upcoming events, like fundraising for the pins and cords they wear at graduation, and the end of the year party at the Springfield Turnverein. So next time you hear the phrase "the pen is mightier than the sword," keep in mind that it's true, and this group of talented writers, future journalists, and aspiring novelists, can prove it.

"This is what you're going to hang yourself with . . ."

Officers of Quill & Scroll: Treasurer Sarah Larif, Vice-President Nicole Macey, President Nikita Reshamwala, Secretary Patty Zerza.

Art Club

Ok, hold still, I think I can draw your profile.

Allison concentrates hard on mastering the art of sketching.

Sean needs an inspiration.

Do you remember when you were little and used to scribble on paper with crayons and call it art? And then when Mom hung it up on the refrigerator for everyone to admire? Well, without knowing this could have been the beginning of something for the members of the art club. You remember Michelangelo, Donatello, Raphael, and Leonardo . . . no, not the Ninja Turtles, but the great artists who many artists today model their styles and works after. Hidden talents and artistic skills are brought forth using paintbrushes, pencils, and markers all the time. So if you think you're the next Rembrandt, Picasso, or Monet, you just may be. And who knows, maybe we'll see your art displayed in the Guggenheim museum.

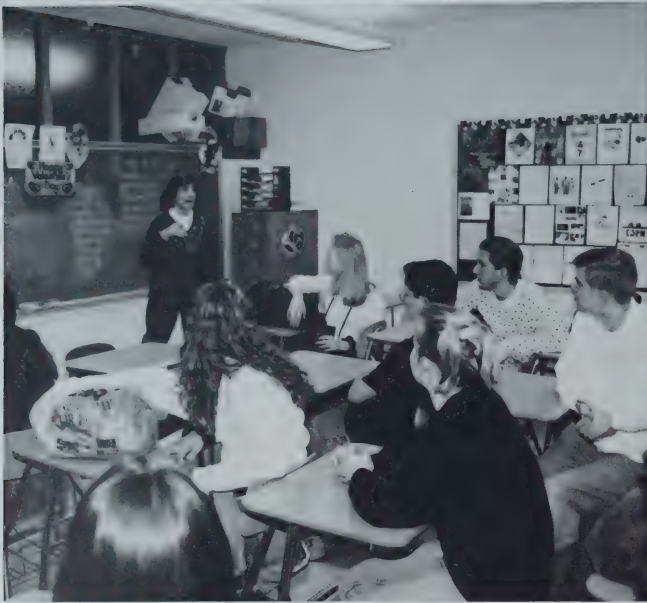

The members of the 1998-99 art club.

A rare bonding moment.

Shakespeare Society

Mrs. Mountmeh has the full attention of these dedicated students as she explains upcoming events.

As Schools March Wits

Have you ever wanted to know the answer to a question like "What are the states that surround Ohio?" or "How many strings are on a violin?" or "What are little girls made of?" Well just ask one of the members of this year's As Schools March Wits team. This group is made up of some of the most intelligent students in the school who are faced with questions like this and compete with other schools in a battle of knowledge and wits. Under the everlasting reliable guidance of Mr. O'Brien, the TV team, made up of Erik Sunny, Jen Niedziela, Evan Konapka, and Mario Santillo, use their high intellectual abilities to solve problems and answer questions in a number of different competitions against surrounding schools. Anyone is welcome to attend the meetings and challenge their wits against this sharp bunch. And who knows? You just might come to realize that you have a 180 IQ as well.

Office Aides

How many Office Aides does it take to make an announcement?

Have you ever been tardy? Dismissed? The Office Aides are there to help you whenever you walk through that door, so that your time is not wasted. They also deliver passes, other important papers, mail, collect attendance sheets, and answer the constantly ringing phones. The Aides volunteer to give up their free periods to help the secretaries in their never-ending jobs. There is always something to keep these ambitious students busy.

They all are so eager to help Mr. Dillon.

Dawn absolutely loves her job.

Attention all students...

Melissa Core, Nicole Macey, Dan Balbony, and Dawn Bucalo.

Library Staff

Are you a frenzied student with a late term paper? Or are you a bookworm searching for the next adventure in reading? Whatever cause brings you to the library, you are sure to be fully assisted in all your needs. Our lovely library staff of Dewey Decimal underlings are ready and more than willing to take on the job of checking out books, helping you locate sources, etc. So if you need help in the library, call over one of the members of the library staff. After they get their nose out of a book, they are sure to aid you in whatever you need.

What did I tell ya? Always ready and willing to help.

Copy Staff

Ever wonder who was behind the mass productions of copies circulating throughout the school? More than likely it was an act committed by one of the members of the copy staff. This helpful group of students give up their free time to run copies for the busy teachers of our school. Without them, we wouldn't have important documents such as homework, tests, and quizzes. Wouldn't that be a shame?

I'll take a thousand of these, double-sided please.

Collaborative

Agawam High School has a lot more students than just the ones who crowd the halls during the day. Collaborative students are gone for half of the school day, learning various vocations, such as landscaping and woodworking, through hands-on experience. Instead of being taught with the typical approach, they are actually working on being prepared for their future jobs. They get up extra early and work extra hard to turn their dreams into reality.

Oh, no! There's no pulse!

What seems to be the problem?

Future CEO in the world of communications.

Stacey diligently works towards her future.

These Collab students can't wait to get going.

Being a psychic requires much concentration.

Shequela takes her masterpiece out of the oven.

I want to work over there!

1999 Sachem

Editor-in-chief Heather Hughes and associate editors Nikita Reshamwala and Sarah Nacewicz had a tremendous amount of work to do during the year, especially right before the deadlines. Mr. Pulaski's room got crazy, with people running around desperately trying to get everything done. This trio of leaders had to make sure the rest of the staff did their jobs right and on time, while also taking care of their own tasks. Proofreading was a big part of their workload. "Do it over . . ." was often heard over the noise of people yelling and papers rustling. The hassles of fixing things that did not go as they were planned were mostly up to Heather. Another big problem was the "hell-book." Storing copies of all the text and layouts, in order, was a major pain in the neck. Altogether, they did what they had to do, and more. But they loved every second of it. Yeah right.

"Patty, where's the candy jar?" Finding the answer to this question was only one of the many jobs placed on the always responsible shoulders of secretary Patty Zera, and being wildly attacked by the ravenous staff was something she endured everyday. She always had a job to do, whether it be taking attendance, making phone calls, keeping records of each day's events, or doing odd jobs for Mr. Pulaski . . . like writing up the same brainless people everyday for skipping his class, or correcting quizzes and judging class competitions. No matter what it was though, she was always dependable and worked hard to keep the crazy staff under control.

Digging their way through mountains of scale-a-graphs and layout sheets, this year's Layout staff did a notable job. Led by editor Jess Briotta, the staff included members such as Tina Gregory, Jay Gagne, Erin Resdigno, and Lisa Marsh. Each of them put in a real team effort, spending all day and sometimes all night drawing layouts for each page in this yearbook. Jess did a great job of cracking the whip here and there to make sure everyone stayed on task. Mr. Pulaski also did a stellar job with his discipline, silly stringing anyone who messed up (Lisa). Throughout the year the Layout staff has a blast posting photo stickers on each other, cropping each other, and fighting over the candy jar. All in all, when it came down to it, the five-member team pulled through and gave us some brilliant ideas and blessed our pages with creativity. I think it's safe to say they did a good job.

Overflowing imaginations gave birth to graphic descriptions and comical captions. Printed out, the common reader may say that the literary staff was insane. They were not mad; the yearbook has merely refined their intelligence, not broken it. As the four wacky literary girls, Shelley Rose, Holly Moren, Leila Mounemneh, and Amanda Peters, poured their zany ideas onto paper, editor Brenna McGinn proofread as fast as her pen could criticize. If the document was approved, it graduated to the "Final Copies (kind of)" folder. Unfortunately, when a paragraph was unworthy of the great "Sachem" it received our ever-famous friend, Brenna's Bird. Whenever problems arose, this determined staff tackled them head-on. Even if all else failed they could always fall back on this little piece of wisdom: when in doubt, blame layout.

Sarah and Niki aren't the only ones who wanted to kick Heather's butt.

A rare moment . . . everyone on layout is smiling!

Thanks to the expeditious fingers and daring dispositions of this year's fearless and faithful photography staff, the strikingly piquant photos are more scintillating and zestful than ever before. "No fear" being the motto of this bodacious bunch composed of editor Jen Niedziela, Michelle Beaudette, Sarah Latif, and . . . oh yeah, in case no one knew, Dan Jock is on the staff too. They battled everything from broken cameras, to fuzzy photos, to piles of pictures no one knew what to do with. They even recruited non-Sachem staff members to do their dirty work for them. But regardless of the fact that they were constantly running around like chickens with their heads cut off, they always managed to capture memorable once-in-a-lifetime moments on film. You can see a display of their admirable work every time you turn the page.

The alarm clock goes off at 6 a.m. You just want to roll over and go back to sleep, but the whole school's depending on you to raise $500 by the end of seventh period today to fill your thermometer. With stress mounting with each new moment, you rush around, frantically trying to clean off the car with enough time to eat breakfast. The day goes on, and when it finally concludes, you feel comforted with the knowledge that you get to leave the building. Then you recall the deadline. You try to get to as many businesses as possible, but it all seems in vain. With ten minutes left, you walk into the last building on your list. You thank your lucky stars as you realize that the owners from two of the neighboring businesses are in the same room as you are. You tell them all why they should buy an ad in the AHS Sachem, and they do! Now you know how members of the Ads Staff feel sometimes. But this is rare, because their fearless leader Nicole Macey makes it a point to have the money in before the bills were due. Gwen Gonyea, Katie Theroux, and Komella Moysis are too good to depend on their lucky stars!

You stroll into room 74 to purchase your very own copy off the 1999 Sachem and you're greeted by two innocent looking young ladies with smiles on their faces. Unsuspectingly, you begin to take out your cash and are viciously attacked by the two animals you thought were so sweet. Shaunessy Egan and Jennifer McGuire made up the yearbook's Business Staff. They posted notices and designed bulletin boards to attract the attention of students and faculty during yearbook sales. They also showed up to school early and stayed after school late every day for a month making sure those who wished to purchase a yearbook paid up and received receipts. When orders were all taken and the books were closed, these two girls had the job of roaming aimlessly around Mr. Pulaski's room checking to see which staff needed the most help. Not only did Shaunessy and Jen provide some much needed assistance in meeting deadlines, they went above and beyond the call of duty in all their tasks.

This year's dynamic sports staff was made up of two stellar athletes, Dan Balbony and Melissa Cole. These ambitious staffers sifted through endless piles of stats and team photos in order to give their fellow athletes and classmates the recognition they deserve in the "Sachem." Not only did Dan's unique personality and illuminating insights contribute so much to the color found among the yearbook staff members, but Melissa's quiet, yet commanding demeanor neatly offset his ego. This pair definitely added to the irreplaceable charm of the yearbook staff with their hard work and the occasional enlightening, yet graphic, descriptions of items inappropriate for publication.

Despite the occasional squabbles and frequent oversights, the 1999 Sachem staff worked hard together and managed to pull off what is to be said as "the best yearbook ever." It took a lot of overtime and teamwork to successfully produce everything that you see before you.

Dan always bossed around fellow sports-straffer Melissa.

I think this portrays just how insane the literary staff is.

So that's where the money went . . . business pocketed it all.

Secretary Patty Zerba . . . or Mr. P's slave.

Photography, laying down on the job.

Ads staff, show me the money!

Jillian Abdaw

Jillian,
We have always been proud of you and your accomplishments. Your sweetness and personality has captivated those who have crossed your path. We have the precious memories of your childhood and look forward to the future.

Congratulations, may you have a lifetime of happiness!

Love,

Dad, Mom, and Chad

Shaunessy Egan

Shaunessy,

Your strength, courage, and spirit have inspired us all. We are so proud of the wonderful person you have become. Now it's time for you to go out into the world, knowing you take our love with you always.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Kai.

Joshua Sprague

"Josh,"

Welcome to the next road of your future! We are so proud and amazed that you have come this far with very little complications (ha ha). Thanks for being respectful to yourself and to us, for continuing to meet your goals, and protecting your future! We are so proud of you and will be by your side forever! Thank you for having the courage to come to us in bad and good times and for listening to our opinions (even though they weren't what you wanted to hear)! Thanks for allowing us to share your life! We love you forever and always!

Love and Congratulations!

Dad, Tina, and Adam!

(P.S. remember: Homework, lunch money, gym clothes, be careful, have a good day, and most of all keep safe!)

Diana Marsh

Congratulations, Diana!

You've finally done it! We're all very proud of you. Thanks for a very happy 17 years. We love you!

Ann Marie Di Mauro

Ann Marie,

Congratulations! We're very proud of you. May you achieve all you strive for. The best is yet to come. We love you!

Mom, Dad, and Mike

Melissa Cote

Melissa,

We can't believe it's over. Our youngest daughter is graduating, and now you will begin the next journey of your life. You have grown into a very special, caring, sensitive, and independent young girl. We are very proud of you and you have been a joy in our lives since you were born. We will miss you greatly as you go off to college. May all your dreams come true. Congratulations #22. We love you with all our hearts!!!

Love, Mom and Dad

Nick Penna
 Watching you grow isn't always easy, but it's been some of my best time spent. I hope your memories are all happy and I know your future is bright. I love you!

Diane Balidi
 Di, Well, you have finally reached the end of one long road, but another will soon begin. We love you very much and know whatever you plan to do we will be behind you 100%. We are very proud of our Princess Di. Love Mom + Dad + Janice

Nicole Yvon
 Nicole, we knew right from the very beginning that you were special. We have watched you grow from "Pony-Tunes" to Proms... Just remember you will always be our sunshine! Congratulations! Love, Mom + Dad

Erik Bodurtha
 My little boy once said to me,
 Mom can I go climb that tree?
 I looked at him and tried to hide,
 a tiny bit of fear inside.
 Yes my son go climb that tree,
 but please don't wander far from me.

This little boy-now almost grown said
 Mom and Dad I'm on my own,
 I need to scale the backyard wall,
 I'll be okay if I should fall.
 I've made some plans, got much to do,
 I need to wander far from you.

We've watched you grow secure and strong,
 and known it wouldn't be that long.
 We're proud of you-we've done our best
 It's up to you to do the rest.
 But know this son-before you part,
 you'll never wander from our hearts.

Erik you are everything and more we could have hoped for, the world is yours for the taking, grab hold and never let go!
 Love, Mom and Dad

Erik Bodurtha

Erik

Well Mr. Sarcastic, I think this picture pretty much sums up anything I could say. It's the Kodak moments like these I'll always remember. I know you'll miss driving me and my friends everywhere-late night help with homework-and anything cheerleading!! I'll miss the phone calls when I know your there not picking up because you know it's me looking for "just one more ride"!! But have a great time in College while you can cuz in two more years I'll be right there asking for more!!

Love Always,

Liz,

Where has our sweet little girl gone, she's turned into a beautiful caring young lady. We know how hard you have worked over the past 12 years, and it sure paid off. We can't tell you how very proud we are of you. With your hard work and dedication, we know your path in life will be very successful.

Congratulations Liz
Much Love, Mom, Dad, Kelly & Grams

Jamie Pavelczyk
Dear Pumpkin, Where did the years go. We are proud of your accomplishments such as a black belt in Tae-Kwan-Do and your school grades. Your mother would be very proud of you. Congratulations and good luck in the future. Love, Dad.

Kristin M. Chmielewski
Dear Kris,

It seems like yesterday that you were still this small. You gave us such joy and laughter throughout the years. You have turned into a beautiful, caring, and talented young lady, and we wish you much happiness and success throughout your life. May God keep you safe, your spirit keep you soaring, and your heart keep you happy. And may Hollywood keep you in the money. Always remember, we're a phone call away.

Love you always,
Mom and Dad

James Iannarelli
Congratulations! Bet you can't wait! It's 1999 - Time to graduate!

You've always been witty and very funny!
You've made our lives a lot more sunny!

As you now take on your new endeavors -
We know, as always, you'll be very clever.

You've always given us more than 200% and always tried -
And you've grown up to be quite a guy.

Congrats!!!!

Mom, Dad and Brian

Carolyn Duquette & Julie Kilpatrick

What is a friend? A friend is somebody who knows you and likes you Exactly the way that you are- Someone who's special and so close in thought That no distance can ever seem far. A friend is somebody who shares all your secrets And laughs at the same things you do- Who helps you make plans and is happy to hear When something nice happens to you And... whether you're neighbors or live miles apart A word from a friend gives a lift To your heart and you spirit that shows you once more Why friendship is life's dearest gift! "Carolyn and Julie" "A baribub and a prayer" When all else fails you know I'll be there! Friends till the end ~

Jessica Brnora

Jessica, In the blink of an eye you've grown from an adorable child to a remarkable young woman. HEATHER MARIE HUGHES

YOUR LOVE FOR UMBRELLAS AS A VERY YOUNG GIRL HAS ONLY BEEN SUPERCEDED BY YOUR DRIVE FOR PERSONAL SUCCESS AND LEADERSHIP. IN & OUT OF THE CLASSROOM, ON & OFF THE FIELD, WITH FRIENDS OR ALONE . . . YOUR QUEST TO EXCEL IS UNRELENTING. THE CREED BY WHICH YOU'VE LIVED, "WORK HARD & PLAY HARD" HAS PREPARED YOU FOR THE UPCOMING PHASE OF YOUR LIFE, A PHASE CALLED INDEPENDENCE. AS OUR YOUNGEST CHILD, YOUR EXCITEMENT IS OUR FEAR. WHILE YOU ANXIOUSLY LOOK FORWARD TO COLLEGE & AND BEYOND, WE WORRY ABOUT BEING ALONE. IT IS THE FRIENDSHIP WE'VE DEVELOPED THAT WILL BOND US TOGETHER FOREVER, EVEN WHEN SEPERATED BY TIME & DISTANCE. WE LOVE YOU DEARLY HEATHER, & TRULY BUBBLE WITH PRIDE AT THE FACT THAT YOU ARE OUR DAUGHTER. WE SHARE IN YOUR MEMORIES OF THE PAST & IN THE DISCOVERY OF YOUR FUTURE. WE'RE PROUD TO BE YOUR PARENTS.

LOVE,
DAD & MOM

Nicole Yvon
To my big sister Ne-Né, Congratulations! Always remember I'm your little bro (even though I'm bigger than you!) Love, Brett

Charlene and Carolyn, You two are like two peas in a pod. You've been true friends all these years.
Thanks for giving our life meaning.
We love you and wish the best for the both of you. Charlene + Carolyn will always be there for each other because family matters.
Love, Sue and Helen

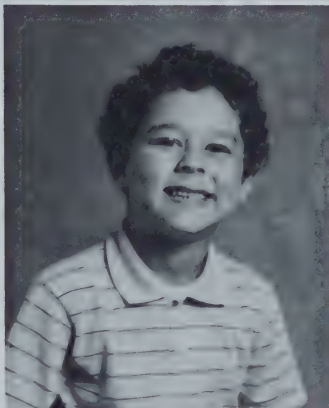

Nicole Macey

From the day you were born, you were determined and independent. You have never been afraid to go after what you want. No obstacle was too great.

The past 17 years have gone by so quickly. You have grown to be a loving, compassionate, honest, sensitive, and caring person. We are so very proud of you and the extraordinary person you've become and as you continue to grow always remember how much we love you.

You will be successful at whatever you chose; follow your dreams and make them a reality. You can achieve anything you want to.

Wherever you are we will always be here for you. You are always in our minds and in our hearts. We love you very much. Mom, Dad, and Ashley

Jason R. Sinay

Well you finally made it thru the first step in life, and hope you are ready for the second. Just try to remember all that you have learned so you can continue. I just want to say that you have made me very proud and I love you very much. Mom

Brenna McGinn

Bren- Watching you grow and mature over the years has brought both joy and sadness. The years were so precious, but went by too quickly. From my adorable and giggly little "Sweetie Plum" to a beautiful and determined young woman, no one could be more proud of your accomplishments and the standards you have set for yourself. You are the bear of my heart and the best part of my life. I am so grateful you are my daughter. Jimmy and I love you very much and wish you every happiness. You will be in our thoughts always. Love, Mom

Carolyn Duquette

Carolyn- May the road you walk be smooth one- may your troubles be few, your days that lie ahead be healthy, wealthy and many. May you find friends in abundance. May the sun shine bright above you and the good Lord always love you. We love you! Dad & Mom Laura, Sarah, and Chelsea

Dear Marie, It seems like only yesterday when we brought you home from the hospital. Now you are seventeen and graduating! To us, you are a dream come true. May all your dreams come true. We love you, always and forever. Love, Mom, Dad, Suzanne and Jacqueline

Andrea Cizek

Congratulations! We are very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. We wish you courage and happiness as you continue through life's journey. Love, Mom, Dad, Daniel, Gregory

Amy Champagne

Cher Amy, You have made it this far . . . imagine all the choices that are out there for you to taste. We are so proud of you. Congratulations Chereé
Your Parents & Brother Who Love You

Gregory Jubinville

Greg,

We can't begin to tell you how much joy you've brought into our lives. You have always made us extremely proud with your academic and athletic accomplishments, but more than that, we are proud of who you are as a person. As you try out new things and take new paths while creating a life you want to lead, please remember that we are always behind you in everything you do. Dreams can come true and we hope that all your dreams become a reality. Love you dearly and always will.

Congratulations!!

Love, Mom & Dad

Patty Zerna

The years have slipped by so fast! It seems like only yesterday that you wrote "The Tale of the Two Crayons" and started your hippo collection. So many things have changed since then except your smile and determination to succeed. Keep striving for what you believe in. May all your hopes and dreams come true.

Love,

Mom & Dad

Without My Friends . . .

Without my friends, where would I be?
 All alone, with no company.
 No hand to hold or smiling face.
 I would surely be quite out of place!
 No special secrets that no one else hears,
 No one to confide in about my fears.
 No strong, loyal, loving being to help me through my troubles.

Without my friends, I wouldn't be,
 For my friends make up the best part of me.
 They raise me up when I fall, and without them,
 I wouldn't be me at all.
 Loyal and supportive till the end,
 We'll always be the very best friends.

Dedicated to Christopher J. Knight

A person close to us has left our world. His name was Christopher J. Knight. Although he attended Suffield Academy for high school, he remains with most of us in our memories.

Memories of playing Pioneer Valley Soccer from grades 1-8 or playing golf when he was just old enough to swing the club. Maybe from junior high when he sat next to you in class, maybe even from his brother, Brian, who talked about him so much, or maybe you worked with us in the water-park at Riverside, where we all grew very close.

No matter how you remember him, we all know he will never be forgotten. Each and every one of us will always love him and keep him in our hearts forever.

With our love and sorrow,

Gwen Gonyea & Leila Mouneimneh

True friendship lasts forever . . .

Laura, Sara, Jen, Martha

GNO-7

It's something no one can replace.
It's also something of true grace.
When things sometimes don't go your way,
Your friends will be there come
what may.
They'll always find it in their hearts,
To forgive and do their part.

To trust and always have hope
and faith,
There are few things in life so great.
So treasure friendship from the start.
And hope that it will not depart.
For it will always bring a smile,
This special love that makes life worthwhile.

Mr. Pulaski,

The entire 1999 Sachem staff would like to thank you for all of your guidance, enthusiasm, and dedication in creating what we believe is "the best yearbook ever." You will be missed as yearbook advisor by faculty and students alike (if, indeed, this is your last year). No one will ever be able to fill the shoes you have made for yourself. You are truly a special teacher whom we both respect and admire. Thank you again for all of your help but most of all . . . thank you for believing in us.

Love,
The 1999 Sachem staff

➤ In 1853, chef George Crum creates potato chips in New York after a customer keeps requesting thinner french-fried potatoes. The U.S., with over 700 varieties on the market, consumes the most potato chips worldwide.

➤ Slang of the 1800s includes coot, crazy as a loon, critter, bub and sis, bully for you, and bumper. Popular phrases today are da bomb, cool and phat.

1486

➤ Germans first bake birthday cakes to celebrate children's birthdays in 1200. The candles burn throughout the day to symbolize life. The tradition of birthday cakes continues with popular characters as part of the cake decoration.
